OLIVIER BERNSTEIN PREMIERS & GRANDS CRUS

2015 VINTAGE

Chambertin 2015 HOT WINES 98 points

Macerated cherry and currant flavors are the hallmarks of this intense red, accented by mineral and spice. Shows a limestone element, with the finish featuring a chalky sensation and a stony note to match the fruit and oak spice. Best from 2023 through 2040. — Bruce Sanderson

Chambertin-Clos de Bèze 2015 HOT WINES 98 points

This is close to seamless, with macerated cherry, pomegranate, spice and smoky oak aromas and flavors meshing with the velvety texture and embracing structure. The finish is long and expansive, showing intensity and complexity. Racy. Best from 2023 through 2040. — Bruce Sanderson

Mazis-Chambertin 2015 HOT WINES 98 points

A brilliant red, bursting with cherry, strawberry, floral and mineral aromas and flavors, backed by a firm structure, with an overall sense of elegance, restraint and understated power. This will need a few years to reveal all its charms, yet remains long and focused. Best from 2023 through 2040. — Bruce Sanderson

Bonnes Mares 2015 HOT WINES 97 points

Offers a stunning display of ripe, pure black cherry and black currant fruit, with shadings of violet, spice and mineral, layered over a silky texture and lush, supple tannins. The finish is long and refreshing. Best from 2022 through 2040. — Bruce Sanderson

Bernstein's 2013s are terrific... his '14s raise the bar even higher... As good as those are, his 2015s may be even better, with an extra dimension of fleshiness and energy, gorgeous Pinot Noir fruit flavors wrapped in spicy oak and the telltale stamp of each site.

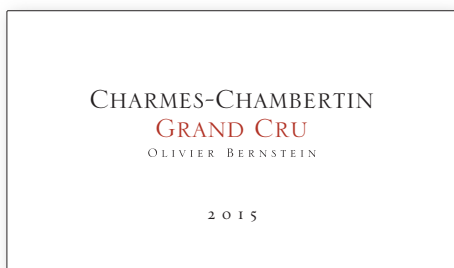

With the flagship Mazis-Chambertin leading the way, Olivier Bernstein has created a stable of stellar red Burgundies.

Clos de Vougeot 2015 96 points

Dark and smoky, delivering black cherry, black currant, graphite and wet earth aromas and flavors. Powerful, yet reined in by the lively acidity. The tannins are refined and well-integrated. Excellent length. Best from 2022 through 2036. — Bruce Sanderson

Charmes-Chambertin 2015 95 points

The cherry and raspberry flavors take on a slight confectionary quality in this lean, taut red. Though in lock-down today, there is concentrated fruit at the core and a long, vibrant finish. Spicy aftertaste. Best from 2021 through 2035. — Bruce Sanderson

Gevrey-Chambertin Les Cazetiers 2015 95 points

A flashy, flamboyant style, boasting charry oak and pure black cherry, blackberry and violet flavors. This should come together nicely in a few years, once the oak is absorbed. Offers a fine, fresh, long finish, with a hint of earth. Best from 2023 through 2035.— Bruce Sanderson.

Gevrey-Chambertin Les Champeaux 2015 95 points

Smoky oak is well-integrated into bright black cherry, black currant and mineral flavors, backed by firm, resonant tannins. Fresh and linear, with a long, fruit- and spice-tinged aftertaste. Should reward patience. Best from 2023 through 2038.— Bruce Sanderson.
